

Fund description and summary of investment policy

The Fund invests in South African interest bearing securities. Securities include national government, parastatal, municipal, corporate bonds and money market instruments. The Fund price is sensitive to interest rate movements because of the long-term nature of the Fund's investments. The duration of the Fund may differ materially from the benchmark. The Fund is managed to comply with investment limits governing retirement funds.

ASISA unit trust category: South African – Interest Bearing – Variable Term

Fund objective and benchmark

The Fund aims to provide investors with a real return over the long term and outperform the FTSE/JSE All Bond Index at no greater risk.

How we aim to achieve the Fund's objective

We try to balance credit risk, duration risk and liquidity risk when selecting investments. We target total returns for investors rather than trying to mirror the returns of the FTSE/JSE All Bond Index. When we cannot find value in the bond markets, our portfolio will be weighted towards cash to get better returns.

Suitable for those investors who

- Seek a bond 'building block' for a diversified multi-asset class portfolio
- Are looking for returns in excess of those provided by money market or cash investments
- Are prepared to accept more risk of capital depreciation than in a money market or cash investment

Minimum investment amounts

Minimum lump sum per investor account	R20 000

Annual management fee

A fixed fee of 0.5% p.a. excl. VAT

From 1 December 2020 to 30 November 2021, we will calculate both the above fixed fee and the previous performance-based fee each day and charge whichever is lower on the day. From 1 December 2021, only the above fixed fee will apply.

The previous performance-based fee rate is calculated by comparing the Fund's total performance over the previous year to that of the benchmark, adjusted for Fund expenses and cash flows. The minimum fee is 0.25% p.a. excl. VAT and, for each percentage of performance above the benchmark, the fee is increased by 0.25%, up to a maximum fee of 0.75% p.a. excl. VAT.

Total expense ratio (TER) and Transaction costs

The annual management fee is included in the TER. The TER is a measure of the actual expenses incurred by the Fund over a one and three-year period (annualised). Since Fund returns are quoted after deduction of these expenses, the TER should not be deducted from the published returns (refer to page 4 for further information). Transaction costs are disclosed separately.

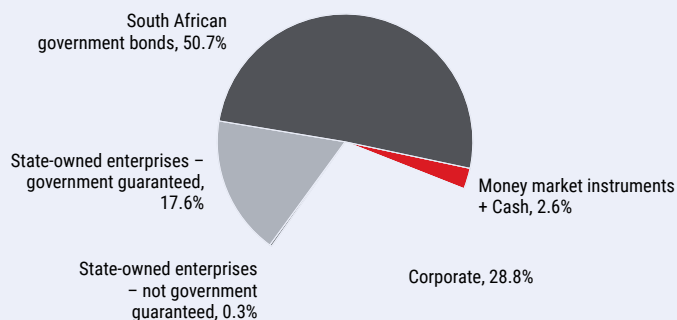

TER and Transaction costs breakdown for the 1- and 3-year period ending 30 September 2020	1yr %	3yr %

The big news of the quarter in fixed income markets was the US Federal Reserve (the Fed) announcing that it does not anticipate raising interest rates until at least 2023. The other significant announcement by the Fed was that it would tolerate inflation temporarily higher than its 2% target, using an average inflation-targeting approach instead. This news indicates that the prevailing easy monetary policy will not be shifting anytime soon.

Despite the continuation of easy money from developed country central banks, South African bonds have not received their fair share of the resulting inflows into emerging markets. Although foreign investors have stopped selling South African bonds, their share of the total amount outstanding has dropped below 30% for the first time since March 2012, just before South Africa was included in the World Government Bond Index. The implication of this is that foreign investors have not been fully participating in National Treasury's ongoing bond auctions.

The performance of South African bonds during the quarter followed a similar theme to that seen in the first half of the year, with the front end of the yield curve outperforming the long end due to negativity about South Africa's long-term fiscal trajectory. All eyes will be on October's Medium-Term Budget Policy Statement for clues on how the Finance Minister intends to bring about much-needed fiscal consolidation. However, all has not been doom and gloom for nominal bonds, with inflation remaining well contained. After troughing at around 2% in the middle of the year, inflation has started to tick up, printing at 3.1% in August. Having cut interest rates by 25 basis points (bps) in July, the South African Reserve Bank chose to hold rates in September, indicating that this may be the end of the rate-cutting cycle.

Primary market activity held up well in the domestic credit market. The quarter even saw auction activity for the first time since March, with Thekwini Fund 16, Mercedes Benz and Standard Bank resuming auctions. Bank paper has been well bid, with credit spreads tightening across the curve. Similarly, blue chip corporate names are also in high demand. Notable sectors where credit spreads remain wide are property and state-owned development finance institutions.

The Allan Gray Bond Fund returned 0.6% over the quarter, less than the FTSE/JSE All Bond Index (ALBI) return of 1.5%. This underperformance was due to the Fund's relatively higher weighting towards the long end of the yield curve, which sold off during the quarter. We have been taking profit on long-dated government bonds purchased earlier in the year and reducing duration. The duration of the Fund is now 5.6 years relative to the ALBI at 6.3 years.

Performance

Collective Investment Schemes in Securities (unit trusts or funds) are generally medium- to long-term investments. The value of units may go down as well as up and past performance is not necessarily a guide to future performance. The Management Company does not provide any guarantee regarding the capital or the performance of the Fund. Performance figures are provided by the Investment Manager and are for lump sum investments with income distributions reinvested. Where annualised performance is mentioned, this refers to the average return per year over the period. Actual investor performance may differ as a result of the investment date, the date of reinvestment and applicable taxes.

Fund mandate

The Fund may be closed to new investments at any time in order to be managed according to its mandate. Unit trusts are traded at ruling prices and can engage in borrowing and scrip lending. The Fund may borrow up to 10% of its market value to bridge insufficient liquidity.

Unit price

Unit trust prices are calculated on a net asset value basis, which is the total market value of all assets in the Fund including any income accruals and less any permissible deductions from the Fund divided by the number of units in issue. Forward pricing is used and fund valuations take place at approximately 16:00 each business day. Purchase and redemption requests must be received by the Management Company by 14:00 each business day to receive that day's price. Unit trust prices are available daily on www.allangray.co.za

Yield

The Allan Gray Bond Fund yield is current, calculated as at month-end.

Fees

Permissible deductions may include management fees, brokerage, Securities Transfer Tax (STT), auditor's fees, bank charges and trustee fees. A schedule of fees, charges and maximum commissions is available on request from Allan Gray.

Total expense ratio (TER) and Transaction costs

The total expense ratio (TER) is the annualised percentage of the Fund's average assets under management that has been used to pay the Fund's actual expenses over the past one and three-year periods. The TER includes the annual management fees that have been charged (both the fee at benchmark and any performance component charged), VAT and other expenses like audit and trustee fees. Transaction costs (including brokerage, Securities Transfer Tax [STT], STRATE and Investor Protection Levy and VAT thereon) are shown separately. Transaction costs are a necessary cost in administering the Fund and impact Fund returns. They should not be considered in isolation as returns may be impacted by many other factors over time including market returns, the type of financial product, the investment decisions of the investment manager and the TER. Since Fund returns are quoted after the deduction of these expenses, the TER and Transaction costs should not be deducted again from published returns. As unit trust expenses vary, the current TER cannot be used as an indication of future TERs. A higher TER does not necessarily imply a poor return, nor does a low TER imply a good return. Instead, when investing, the investment objective of the Fund should be aligned with the investor's objective and compared against the performance of the Fund. The TER and other funds' TERs should then be used to evaluate whether the Fund performance offers value for money. The sum of the TER and Transaction costs is shown as the Total investment charge ('TIC').

Compliance with Regulation 28

The Fund is managed to comply with Regulation 28 of the Pension Funds Act. Exposures in excess of the limits will be corrected immediately, except where due to a change in the fair value or characteristic of an asset, e.g. market value fluctuations, in which case they will be corrected within a reasonable time period. The Management Company does not monitor compliance by retirement funds with section 19(4) of the Pension Funds Act (item 6 of Table 1 to Regulation 28).
