

Fund description and summary of investment policy

The Fund invests primarily in shares listed on the Johannesburg Stock Exchange (JSE). The Fund can invest a maximum of 45% offshore. The Fund invests the bulk of its foreign allowance in equity funds managed by Orbis Investment Management Limited, our offshore investment partner. The Fund is typically fully invested in shares. Returns are likely to be volatile, especially over short- and medium-term periods.

ASISA unit trust category: South African – Equity – General

Fund objective and benchmark

The Fund aims to create long-term wealth for investors. It aims to outperform the average return of South African General Equity Funds over the long term, without taking on greater risk of loss. To pursue its objective the Fund's portfolio may differ materially from those of its peers. This will result in the Fund underperforming its benchmark materially at times. The Fund aims to compensate for these periods of underperformance by delivering outperformance over the long term. The Fund's benchmark is the market value-weighted average return of funds in the South African – Equity – General category (excluding Allan Gray funds).

How we aim to achieve the Fund's objective

We seek to buy shares offering the best relative value while maintaining a diversified portfolio. We thoroughly research companies to assess their intrinsic value from a long-term perspective. This long-term perspective enables us to buy shares from sellers who over-react to short-term difficulties or undervalue long-term potential. We invest in a selection of shares across all sectors of the stock market, and across the range of large, mid and smaller cap shares.

Suitable for those investors who

- Are comfortable with stock market fluctuation, i.e. short- to medium-term volatility

- Wish to use the Fund as an equity 'building block' in a diversified multi-asset class portfolio

Meeting the Fund objective

The Fund has created wealth for its long-term investors. Since inception the Fund has outperformed its benchmark. Over the latest 10-year period, the Fund has performed in-line with its benchmark. Over the latest five-year period the Fund has underperformed its benchmark. The Fund experiences periods of underperformance in pursuit of its objective of creating long-term wealth for investors, without taking on greater risk of loss than the average equity fund. The maximum drawdown and lowest annual return numbers, in the 'Performance net of all fees and expenses' table, show that the Fund has successfully reduced downside risk in periods of negative market returns.

Income distributions for the last 12 months

To the extent that income earned in the form of dividends and interest exceeds expenses in the Fund, the Fund will distribute any surplus biannually.	30 Jun 2021	31 Dec 2021

Annual management fee

Allan Gray charges a fee based on the net asset value of the Fund excluding the portion invested in Orbis funds. The fee rate is calculated daily by comparing the Fund's total performance for the day to that of the benchmark.

Fee for performance equal to the Fund's benchmark: 1.00% p.a. excl. VAT

For each annualised percentage point above or below the benchmark we add or deduct 0.2%. The maximum fee is uncapped and if the fee would have been negative, 0% will be charged for the day and the negative fee will be carried forward to reduce the next day's fee (and all subsequent days until the underperformance is recovered).

This means that Allan Gray shares in approximately 20% of annualised performance relative to the benchmark.

A portion of the Fund may be invested in Orbis funds. Orbis charges performance-based fees within these funds that are calculated based on each Orbis fund's performance relative to its own benchmark. Orbis pays a marketing and distribution fee to Allan Gray.

Total expense ratio (TER) and transaction costs

The annual management fees charged by both Allan Gray and Orbis are included in the TER. The TER is a measure of the actual expenses incurred by the Fund over a one and three-year period (annualised). Since Fund returns are quoted after deduction of these expenses, the TER should not be deducted from the published returns (refer to page 4 for further information). Transaction costs are disclosed separately.

10. The Fund can invest a maximum of 45% offshore. Market movements periodically cause the Fund to move beyond these limits. This must be corrected within 12 months.

Note: There may be slight discrepancies in the totals due to rounding.

The Fund returned 5.8% for the quarter and 25.7% for the year. During the fourth quarter, the largest contributors to returns were the basic materials and consumer staples sectors. The local equity market rallied strongly into the end of 2021, but this followed a third quarter in which the market was down.

Returns from the JSE in 2021 were 29.2% as measured by the FTSE/JSE All Share Index (ALSI) and 27.1% as measured by the Capped SWIX. These numbers are of course reasonably high by historical standards. For context, over the last 40 years the ALSI has returned 16.3% p.a.

There is a seeming contradiction between strong equity market returns on the one hand and a weak South African economy on the other hand. How should we interpret this divergence? Firstly, it is very common for the performance of stock markets to diverge from economic performance, especially in the short term. Markets take a forward-looking view and often look through the short-term impact of issues like COVID-19. Secondly, the fortunes of many JSE-listed companies are not really linked to South African economic growth. This would include international businesses like Richemont and commodity exporters like Impala Platinum. On a rough analysis, earnings for about half the JSE are not directly linked to the SA economy.

Following this strong performance, the ALSI closed 2021 29% higher than it was at the start of 2020, i.e. before the onset of the pandemic. Does this mean that the JSE is now expensive? Not necessarily. Overall valuation levels are not high compared to history. The Capped SWIX has also returned only 7% p.a. over the last five years, despite this recent strong performance. Allan Gray's philosophy is to not take a top-down view of where markets are heading, but rather to do bottom-up research on individual companies. Our fundamental research approach currently reveals more than enough attractive opportunities, which makes us cautiously optimistic about medium-term returns.

Of course, there are many risks from the global and SA macroeconomic environment, but these are balanced by the low prices at which many businesses are trading.

The South African banking sector is an example of where we are finding attractive valuations. Large banks like Standard Bank and Nedbank can be bought at around seven times 2022's earnings. This is very cheap by historical standards and compensates for issues such as increasing competition and a tough economic outlook. Current earnings are also still depressed but should recover to pre-COVID-19 levels in the next year or two. Bad debts have been lower than many investors had feared. Lower participation from foreign investors in the SA market has contributed to depressed valuations of SA financial stocks.

Remgro is another example of an undervalued business. Remgro owns a portfolio of quality South African businesses, many of which are listed. These businesses themselves trade on reasonable valuations. On top of this, Remgro trades at a nearly 40% discount to its underlying portfolio – a large, and we think undeserved, discount compared to history and other holding companies globally. Management is taking several actions to unlock value within this portfolio. Examples include the recently announced transactions between beverage businesses Distell and Heineken and between fibre holding company CIVH and Vodacom, as well as the planned unbundling of some insurance assets by Rand Merchant Investment Holdings.

During the quarter the Fund bought Gold Fields, Mondi and Anheuser-Busch and sold Standard Bank and RMI.

Management Company

Performance

Collective investment schemes in securities (unit trusts or funds) are generally medium- to long-term investments. The value of units may go down as well as up and past performance is not necessarily a guide to future performance. Movements in exchange rates may also cause the value of underlying international investments to go up or down. The Management Company does not provide any guarantee regarding the capital or the performance of the Fund. Performance figures are provided by the Investment Manager and are for lump sum investments with income distributions reinvested. Actual investor performance may differ as a result of the investment date, the date of reinvestment and dividend withholding tax.

Fund mandate

Funds may be closed to new investments at any time in order to be managed according to their mandates. Unit trusts are traded at ruling prices and can engage in borrowing and scrip lending. The funds may borrow up to 10% of their market value to bridge insufficient liquidity.

Unit price

Unit trust prices are calculated on a net asset value basis, which is the total market value of all assets in the Fund, including any income accruals and less any permissible deductions from the Fund, divided by the number of units in issue. Forward pricing is used and fund valuations take place at approximately 16:00 each business day. Purchase and redemption requests must be received by the Management Company by 14:00 each business day to receive that day's price. Unit trust prices are available daily on www.allangray.co.za.

Fees

Permissible deductions may include management fees, brokerage, securities transfer tax, auditor's fees, bank charges and trustee fees. A schedule of fees, charges and maximum commissions is available on request from Allan Gray.

Total expense ratio (TER) and transaction costs

The total expense ratio (TER) is the annualised percentage of the Fund's average assets under management that has been used to pay the Fund's actual expenses over the past one- and three-year periods. The TER includes the annual management fees that have been charged (both the fee at benchmark and any performance component charged), VAT and other expenses like audit and trustee fees. Transaction costs (including brokerage, securities transfer tax, Share Transactions Totally Electronic (STRATE) and FSCA Investor Protection Levy and VAT thereon) are shown separately. Transaction costs are necessary costs in administering the Fund and impact Fund returns. They should not be considered in isolation as returns may be impacted by many other factors over time, including market returns, the type of financial product, the investment decisions of the investment manager, and the TER. Since Fund returns are quoted after the deduction of these expenses, the TER and transaction costs should not be deducted again from published returns. As unit trust expenses vary, the current TER cannot be used as an indication of future TERs. A higher TER does not necessarily imply a poor return, nor does a low TER imply a good return. Instead, when investing, the investment objective of the Fund should be aligned with the investor's objective and compared against the performance of the Fund. The TER and other funds' TERs should then be used to evaluate whether the Fund performance offers value for money. The sum of the TER and transaction costs is shown as the total investment charge (TIC).
