Commentary

Consumer spending in Japan has been anything but robust, but even in a tough economy it is possible to identify compelling investment opportunities. Rakuten, an on-line shopping mall, is one example among your Fund's top 10 holdings. Japan's e-commerce market is less developed than in the US, but it has been growing rapidly. With a strong business model, a popular customer loyalty programme and nearly 30% market share, Rakuten is, in our view, in a position to generate favourable long-term growth in earnings and free cash flow. Founded by a US-educated MBA in 1998, it is entrepreneurial and extremely well-managed. In our opinion, Rakuten's slight premium valuation does not fully reflect its superior business and growth outlook.

The Orbis Japan Equity (Euro) is a fund of Orbis SICAV, a Luxembourg Part I UCITS, which is the only Orbis Investment company admitted for public marketing in Luxembourg. Collective Investment Schemes (CIS) are generally medium to long-term investments. The value of participatory interests may go down as well as up and past performance is not necessarily a guide to the future. Fluctuations or movements in exchange rates may cause the value of underlying international investments to go up or down. CIS are traded at ruling prices and can engage in borrowing and scrip lending. A schedule of fees and charges and maximum commissions is available on request from Allan Gray Unit Trust Management Limited, a member of the Association for Savings & Investments SA. Commission and incentives may be paid by investors to third parties and if so, would be included in the overall costs. The Fund is priced weekly. Figures quoted are for the periods indicated for a ¥1,000 and €10 investment, using NAV-NAV prices, with income distributions reinvested. Performance is quoted in yen and euro currency terms. A prospectus is available on request from Allan Gray Unit Trust Management Limited. Certain capitalised terms are defined in the Prospectus. Returns are net of fees, include income and assume reinvestment of dividends.
